

22nd Carolinas-Virginias Junior Team Matches

Old North State Club

New London, NC

August 28-29, 2004

Virginias 7 1/2, Carolinas 4 1/2

While Hurricane Gaston came a-shore in South Carolina, a hurricane from the Virginias came a-shore at Badin Lake and washed out the hopes of the home team from the Carolinas on winning the annual junior team matches two years in a row. The Virginias team took control of several matches on the front nine and never looked back. The highlight for the Virginias team was a sizzling 30 on the front 9 by George Soongnarata from Richmond, VA. His opponet Nathan Spoon was 4 down after firing an impressive 2-under par 34. The matches were played under four-ball match play on Saturday and singles match play on Sunday. Each team was awarded 1 point for winning a match. Teams were awarded ½ points for all halved matches.

David Parrot Award

The David Parrott award is given annually to the Carolinas Team player who displays excellence in sportsmanship, ability, and academic excellence. The award is presented by Dr. Larry Parrott of Camden, SC in honor of his son David.

David Parrot was diagnosed with leukemia in the spring of 1982 and during his brief illness, he participated in the golf camp at Duke University and competed in the SCGA South Carolina Junior Championship, finishing third in his flight.

He was given the Derek Davis sportsmanship award at the championship for his effort, determination and inspiration he gave to all who knew him. David died July 29, 1982 at the age of 16.
