

20th North Carolina Senior
The Point Lake and Golf Club
Mooresville, NC
May 17-19, 2005
Champion: Robert Kulp, Jr.
Winston-Salem

Bob Kulp of Winston-Salem successfully defended his title by firing a final-round 68 to claim the 20th North Carolina Senior Championship at The Point Lake and Golf Club. Second-round leader David Strawn of Charlotte stumbled to a final-round 76 and finished alone in fourth at 217. Kulp, a dentist, gave credit to his new wife, Connie, and to a new book, Fearless Golf. “Connie kept me calm all day out there,” said the newlywed Kulp. “She settled me down by talking to me during the round.” Kulp also credits a new book, Fearless Golf.

“The book explains how a golfer should play each shot and not worry about what the end result will be,” said the 58 year-old Kulp. “The book says it is important to keep your ego out of your game.” This win is Kulp’s third CGA senior win in three years. He is also a former winner of the Carolinas Senior Championship. Bill Cox of Gastonia shot his age in the second round of the Super Senior division to win by one-stroke over Peter Parker of Winston-Salem.
