

The Jimmy Creed Junior Invitational

Camden CC      Camden, SC

May 25 - 26, 2013

Final Results

Camden, SC—Trace Crowe of Easley, SC shot a final round one over par 71 to capture the inaugural Jimmy Creed Junior Invitational with a two day total of 141 on the par 70 Donald Ross designed Camden CC golf course. Crowe, a high school sophomore, shook off a sluggish start of bogeying two of the first four holes by birding the par 4 fifth hole and then put a string of pars together to finish the front side at one over par 36. Two bogeys and two birdies along with five pars on the back side secured his one shot victory. RJ Keur, a high school junior from Summerville, SC finished second at 142 after rounds of 72-70. 2012 Carolinas Junior Player of the Year Keenan Huskey of Greenville, SC finished three shots back at 144.

The Jimmy Creed Junior Invitational is named for Mr. Jimmy Creed of Camden, SC. Mr. Creed passed away in October of 2012 as one of the most popular and well thought of members at Camden Country Club. "He loved kids and was very supportive of the junior golfers at the club," said Camden CC head professional Matt McCarley. McCarley added, "He was a former junior champion here at the club and made it to the semi-finals of the CGA four ball championship." Proceeds from the tournament will go to a scholarship foundation to help local kids.

The Creed Junior Invitational is conducted by the Carolinas Golf Association.
