Your Carolinas Golf Association

The Carolinas Golf Association (CGA) was founded in 1909 and has grown from five to more than 700 member clubs. The fact that you are reading this book suggests you belong to a CGA member club and you are interested in your association. We want to tell you about the CGA and the benefits of membership.

The CGA is a 501(c)3 non-profit service organization. The CGA bylaws are listed elsewhere in this publication.

The CGA conducts 35 major championships, including the Carolinas Amateur, as well as five team competitions and qualifying events for USGA championships. These serve to identify the best players in the Carolinas; but the CGA tournament schedule reaches golfers of all abilities. The CGA also conducts one-day handicap tournaments for players of all skill levels, one-day senior four-ball tournaments, and one-day events for junior and women golfers. These fun events attract more than 14,000 entries a year.

The CGA administers the USGA handicap system in the Carolinas by offering both an “at-club” and an “at-home” internet-based computerized system with a top tournament management package through Golfnet. The CGA pioneered computerized handicaps in 1963 and continues to offer premiere services at a low cost to members.

The CGA hired a Director of Women’s Golf in 1997, evidence of the association’s dedication to serving all segments of Carolinas golfers.

The CGA’s Tarheel Youth Golf Association promotes the future of the game. TYGA, which has more than 2,000 members, works to complement existing junior golf programs and help create new ones. TYGA provides rankings for North Carolina juniors and serves as a clearinghouse for junior tournament information.

“Carolinan Golf” magazine is mailed quarterly free of charge to members of CGA member clubs. Clubs are encouraged to send membership rosters (and annual membership additions) to the CGA to get issues of “Carolinan Golf” to members.

The CGA was the first regional golf association to offer an agronomy service. Dr. Leon Lucas of Apex, N.C. visits member clubs, free of charge, a service the CGA has provided since 1982. On-site turf management consultation can be arranged for expenses only, and unlimited telephone help is available at no extra cost. Dr. Lucas uses the North Carolina State University and Clemson University agronomy services for soil testing. Don’t miss this opportunity to help your club’s turf.

The CGA measures member courses free of charge. The CGA staff also oversees more than two dozen course and slope rating teams of men and women. These teams rate or re-rate more than 100 courses each year.

The CGA offers in-club seminars to review the Rules of Golf and handicapping procedures — again free of charge — to member clubs. The CGA staff answers Rules of Golf questions (phone or e-mail). The CGA schedules regular seminars for club officers to learn more about the CGA and how we can help better our member clubs.

The CGA pager service provides quick rules help to member clubs with Rules of Golf questions on weekends and holidays.

The CGA acknowledges members’ holes in one through the “CGAcer” program. The CGA sends certificates to more than 400 acers each year.

The CGA is an outpost for the USGA and is involved with questions about amateur reinstatement and status.

The Carolinas Golf Foundation

The Carolinas Golf Foundation was formed by the Carolinas Golf Association in 1977 to provide support for universities and technical schools involved in golf-oriented turfgrass research. Since its inception the Foundation has grown to include promoting and supporting junior golf, women's golf, turfgrass research and management and many other worthwhile Carolinas golf projects.

The Foundation is funded by the CGA and by contributions from individuals who want to invest in the future of golf. According to Internal Revenue Service regulations, the Foundation must generate at least 10 percent of its receipts from golfers who want to give back something to our game.

Contributions to the foundation are tax deductible. In the last 34 years, the foundation has raised more than $1,500,000, emphasizing how these grants can benefit golf in the Carolinas.

Scholarships

The foundation's scholarship program supports students who are aspiring to become golf superintendents and turfgrass managers in the Carolinas. In 2010, the Carolinas Golf Foundation underwrote grants to turfgrass majors at Clemson University and North Carolina State University. Individual grants varied in value up to $2,000.

Charles E. Lynch Jr., CGA Counsel, noted, "This year's winners are the men and women who will direct tomorrow's turf programs. They will discover solutions for future turfgrass problems. We are pleased to participate in endowing this ongoing program." The Carolinas Golf Foundation first offered scholarship aid to turfgrass majors in 1977.

Turfgrass Research Projects

The Carolinas Golf Foundation also concentrates research grant aid at Clemson University and North Carolina State University. Studies at Clemson have focused on development of new grasses to be used in the grass transition zone, which covers the Carolinas.

The Foundation recently sponsored a two-year study by Dr. Bruce Martin at Clemson University. Dr. Martin studied the effects of various soils on two different and new kinds of Bermudagrasses -- TifEagle and Miniverdi. His goal is to provide Carolinas courses with the best soil and fertilizer management practices for these grasses to combat the hot, arid summers and continued water quality issues.

Player Development

The Foundation supports many aspects of women's golf and junior golf throughout the Carolinas. Donations are made to the Women's Carolinas Golf Association, North Carolina Women's Golf Association, South Carolina Junior Golf Foundation, and many other worthy volunteer groups.

How You Can Help

All contributions to the Carolinas Golf Foundation are tax deductible and go directly to various Carolinas programs. The CGA absorbs administrative costs of the Foundation. Donations should be made payable to the Carolinas Golf Foundation and mailed to: Carolinas Golf Foundation, PO Box 319, West End, North Carolina 27376. Your support is appreciated.

The Richard S. Tufts Awards - CGA Players of the Year

The Richard S. Tufts Awards were established in 1997 to honor Carolinas amateur golfers who had exceptional individual tournament performances over the preceding year. Tufts served on the CGA Executive Committee from 1926 to 1964 and served as President from 1931 through 1933. The awards are given to the number one golfer based on the CGA amateur rankings at the end of the calendar year in each of four categories: Men, Women, Senior Men and Senior Women.

The Junior Boys and Junior Girls awards are based on a series of junior tournaments run by nine associations that are the grassroots of junior golf in the Carolinas. Participating Carolinas associations and tournaments are the Carolinas Golf Association (CGA), Carolinas PGA (CPGA), Trusted Choice Big I Junior Classics, South Carolina Golf Association (SCGA), Women's Carolinas Golf Association (WCGA), Women's South Carolina Golf Association (WSCGA), South Carolina Junior Golf Association (SCJGA), Tarheel Youth Golf Association (TYGA) and the Joe Cheves Junior Invitational.

97th Carolinas Amateur Championship The Dunes Golf and Beach Club Myrtle Beach, SC July 14-17, 2011

Champion: Scott Harvey, Greensboro, NC

33-year-old Scott Harvey of Greensboro, NC fulfilled a lifelong dream by matching his dad’s feat to win the Carolinas Amateur championship. Harvey’s seven-under par 281 total edged three golfers by two strokes. The championship was conducted at The Dunes Golf & Beach Club in Myrtle Beach, SC. “This is the one that I wanted more than any of them,” said Harvey referring to his victory. “This is the premiere amateur event in the southeast with a great list of champions, including my dad. Knowing my dad won this as well is just incredible.” Harvey, who finished runner up in this event last year, has struggled to several second place CGA finishes before this year. “I have been getting better each year and I wanted to come out and make a statement in this final round,” said Harvey. “I knocked it four inches on my approach shot on my first hole which got me going.” Harvey’s father Bill won countless amateur events including three Carolinas Amateurs. Just in the past four months, Scott has claimed the Carolinas Four-Ball (with Patrick Brady), the North Carolina Open and the Carolinas Amateur. Bill Harvey also won each of these events.

Trevor Cone of Concord, NC made a serious run at the title. Playing four groups ahead of Harvey, Cone was blazing to a possible Dunes Club course record heading to the 18th hole at six-under par for his round and climbing into a share of the lead at seven-under par for the championship. His approach shot to the par 4 18th green clipped a tree branch, hit the greenside bank and rolled back into the water hazard leading to a double bogey six. Cone finished in a tie for second place at 283. Defending champion Logan Harrell of Huntersville, NC shot a final-round 73 and finished tied for 16th at 290.

Runner up Brick Elder (left) of Randleman, NC lets a drive fly in pursuit of the championship. Coming in tied for 2nd place, Elder's four day total of 5 under par 283 was just two shots off the pace. Trevor Cone(center) of Concord, NC also finished the championship tied for second while scoring an excellent final two rounds of 69 and 68, respectively. Skip Taylor(right) looks over his shot. Taylor finished tied for seventh with a four day total of 289.

62nd Carolinas Junior
Gaston Country Club
Gastonia, NC
July 26-28, 2011

Champion: Will Long, Gastonia, NC

54 holes were not enough to determine the winner of the 62nd Carolinas Junior Championship hosted by the Ellis Maples designed course at Gaston CC in Gastonia, NC. But on the fifth playoff hole, Will Long of Gastonia, NC captured the title with a birdie three to defeat Will Starke of Chapin, SC. Long, a rising high school junior, shot a five under par 67 to finish tied with Starke in the three day event at ten under par 206. Long made the turn with a two shot lead after a front nine 33 and Starke's 37 on the front nine. But Starke battled back with a four under par 32 to finish with a three under par 69. On the first playoff hole, Long's second shot found the rough to the right of the green, but after a good chip shot, Long made a five footer for birdie to tie the hole. After trading pars on the second playoff hole, both players two putted for birdie on hole number 1 to send the playoff to hole number 2. Starke made a great up and down from the short side of the green and Long two putted and the playoff moved to hole number 3. On the fifth playoff hole, Starke found the right rough and managed to get his second shot on the left side of the green. Long hit his second shot to 5 feet and then made the putt to win his first Carolinas Golf Association championship. Finishing in third place was Kendrick Vinar, Jr of Chapel Hill who finished with a three day total of seven under par 209.

In the other divisions, Tanner Owen of High Point, NC won the 14-15 age division with a one under par 215. In the boys' 12-13 age division, Stephen Reynolds of Greenville, SC finished with a three day total of one over par 217 to win by one shot over Walker Simas of Charlotte and Wesley Simmons of Goldsboro, NC. Harry Reynolds of Greenville, SC won the 11 and under division with a 27 hole total of 112, good enough for a two shot victory over Grant Smith of Charlotte, NC.

50th Carolinas Senior
Columbia Country Club
(Ridgewood-Tall Pines)
Blythewood, SC
September 21-23, 2011

Champion: John Dennis III, Greenville, SC

After a 4 hour and 45 minute rain delay, the final round of the Carolinas Senior Amateur Championship was finally played. John Dennis III of Greenville, SC holed a 10-foot birdie putt on the third playoff hole to defeat Logan Jackson of Winston-Salem, NC. Dennis and Jackson stood at six-under par 138 for the championship. The win is Dennis' first CGA championship title although he has amassed a very impressive golf resume that includes a SCGA South Carolina Senior title, two Dogwood Senior crowns and a 10-time Greenville Country Club champion. "I hit the ball as well as I have in 6 or 7 years this week," stated Dennis. "Other than missing one short putt I putted the ball great too." Playing in the same group, Dennis and Jackson knew how each other stood throughout the round. It was a back and forth battle where the lead changed hands on the back nine. What they did not know was that Mark Wagner of Statesville, NC was making a move of his own on the other side of the golf course and posted a five-under par 67 to take the clubhouse lead. After a bogey by Jackson on the 17th hole, he and Dennis came to the final hole tied at six-under par. "I almost hit my tee shot out of bounds on 18 and had no shot to the green," Dennis noted. He proceeded to hit a sand wedge to in front of the green and was able to get up and down, including canning a crucial 12-foot putt to remain tied with Jackson. "It was a real treat to be paired with Logan today and glad we both played well." Due to wet course conditions and forecasted rain the second round was cancelled and the championship was reduced to 36 holes. The field was cut to the low 84 players for the final round.

Champion: Patty Moore, Charlotte, NC

Patty Moore of Charlotte, NC captured her 15th CGA Championship title and won the 13th Carolinas Women's Senior Championship by three strokes over Pat Brogden of Garner, NC. Moore said this win was an extra special moment for her. "I've been struggling with my swing a little and it's been a while since I have won an individual title so this really makes me appreciate this win even more." Moore carded two birdies on the day to shoot an even par round of 72-144. "My putter was kind to me this week on these fast bermuda greens. I also received a tip from a friend on the driving range after the first round that seemed to be a good swing thought for me. I'm very happy." This win marks six times Moore has held the Carolinas Women's Senior Amateur trophy. Defending champion, Pat Brogden of Garner, NC finished alone in second place three shots back. "I just couldn't gain any extra ground," Brogden said. In the tournament division, Susan Harden of Ladys Island, SC won the Super Senior prize and took the overall award as well. This division plays a shorter course.

Champion: Larry Boswell, Jamestown, NC

2009 Carolinas Super Senior champion Larry Boswell of Jamestown, NC overcame a five-shot deficit to win the Carolinas Super Senior Championship. Boswell has now won two Carolinas Super Senior titles along with two North Carolina Super Senior Championship crowns. Boswell finished at 142 and was the only player to finish under par at the Greg Norman designed golf course that played a shade over 6000 yards for the event. Round one leader, Gary Strickfaden of Southern Pines, NC, held a three-shot lead after the 13th hole but he carded four consecutive bogeys on the last four holes while Boswell played the same stretch at one-under par to seal a two stroke victory. "It would have meant as much to me if Gary (Strickfaden) had won this event. We are great friends and I enjoy competing against him," Boswell stated. Boswell is now the holder of 14 CGA championship titles and is set to be inducted into the Carolinas Golf Hall of Fame in August. The Carolinas Super Senior Championship was open to any male amateur golfer who is a resident of North Carolina or South Carolina, is at least 65-years-old and has a 15.4 or less handicap index at a CGA member club.

31st Carolinas Mid-Amateur
Carolina Golf Club
Charlotte, NC
April 15-17, 2011

Champion: Paul Tucker, Waxhaw, NC

Paul Tucker, the 32 year old vice president of Tucker Lumber Company came from two strokes back to win the 31st Carolinas Mid-Amateur Championship at the Carolina Golf Club. Paul toured the recently renovated Ross gem with three birdies on the front side which turned out to be all he needed after an even par effort on the back. The win gives Paul his second Mid Am win in three years. He also won the 2010 North Carolina Mid-Amateur Championship played at Pinewood CC in Asheboro. The first round leader, Todd Hendley of Greer SC, double bogied the reachable par 5 eighth to derail his championship hopes. The low round of the tournament was fired by Scott Harvey of Greensboro. His six birdie one bogey 65 gave him another “almost” championship. Scott quipped, “I guess I’ll have to finish second in a match play event before I ever get a CGA trophy.” The defending champion, Steve Liebler of Irmo, SC played well in his defense but faltered on the final nine to finish four back. This breaks the string of consecutive wins by a South Carolinian at four. However, Tucker moved from SC to Waxhaw, NC just three years ago. Due to severe weather conditions on Saturday the second round was cancelled and the tournament was shortened to 36 holes.

Champion: Dawn Woodard, Greer, SC

Dawn Woodward of Greer, SC captured her first CGA championship title by defeating Courtney Taylor of Lincolnton, NC by a 3 & 1 margin. Woodard, who played for Furman University and is now a mom of four, met fellow Greer resident Vanessa Koechli in the semifinals. Both players traded birdies for most of the round but then Woodard made a great par save on the par 4-16th and went on to close Koechli out by a 3 & 1 margin. "The 16th hole was a pivotal point in all of my matches this week," Woodard said. "All my matches would be close either way coming down the stretch but then I would get to 16 and then I could make something happen." Woodard also had a "good luck charm" on her bag this week. Her 13-year-old daughter Ashely. "She made the week a lot of fun for me and she puts things into perspective. I'm glad she came along." Woodard was in the finals in 2010 but eventually lost to champion, Austin Ernst of Seneca, SC. "I'm glad I pulled through this year. It feels good to win my first CGA championship." Photo at left: Ashley Woodard; at right: Dawn Woodard

Champion: Jackson Taylor, Wilmington, NC

First round leader Jackson Taylor of Wilmington, NC finished day two tied with Jack Fields of Southern Pines, NC at four under par 140. Taylor, a sophomore at Davidson College, defeated Fields on the second playoff hole to secure his first CGA title. "I did not get off to a good start, but I played well on the back side and made a 20 footer on the last hole to get into the playoff," commented Taylor. Finishing alone in third place was Robert Hoadley of Southern Pines, NC, a sophomore at UNC-Greensboro, who ended with a two day total of one under par 143.

Patrick Brady of Reidsville, NC and Scott Harvey of Greensboro, NC captured the Carolinas Four-Ball Championship, 4 and 3 over qualifying medalists Bryan Newton of Gray Court, SC and Bret Boulware of Greenville, SC. Brady and Harvey, each who has never won a CGA championship, capitalized on a four-under par round through 15 holes to take their first CGA win. "This is special for a lot of reasons," said Brady, a 47 year old gasoline distributor. "Our dads (Pat Foy Brady and Bill Harvey) each has won CGA championships and that is something we both wanted to do," Harvey agreed. "For us to each get our first CGA win playing together made it even better," said the 32 year old property manager. "I could hardly speak when I called my dad to tell him we won." This was the third consecutive trip to the

43rd Carolinas Senior Four-Ball Country Club of Spartanburg Spartanburg, SC April 19-21, 2011

Champions: Frank Ford III, Charleston, SC & Bill Smunk, Kingstree, SC

Frank Ford III of Charleston, SC and Bill Smunk of Kingstree, SC birdied the last five holes to win the Carolinas Senior Four-Ball Championship by two strokes over defending champions Paul Simson of Raleigh, NC and Don Detweiler of Raleigh, NC. Ford and Smunk finished with a three-day score of 193 which is a championship scoring record since the event was expanded to 54 holes in 2002. Ford III, a 59-year-old financial services vice president, and Smunk, a 60-year-old insurance agency owner, entered the final round only one stroke back of Michael Bivins of High Point, NC and Trip Gentry of Greensboro, NC. A front nine 30 gave them a one-stroke lead heading into the back nine. Simson-Detweiler and Bivins-Gentry gave chase but the five consecutive birdies sealed the victory for Ford and Smunk. “We played spectacular golf and about as good as we could play,” Ford III said on their round of 62. “Playing against Paul (Simson) we knew that we had to keep our foot to the pedal. Paul’s greatness makes you play your best golf.” The victory marks the eighth CGA championship crown for Ford III (Carolinan Amateur (1992); Carolinas Four-Ball (1985, 87, 90, 92); Carolinas Mid-Amateur (1998); Carolinas Pro-Amateur (1988)) and the third title for Bill Smunk (Carolinan Four-Ball (1994); Carolinas Senior Four-Ball (2007)). Photo from left: Frank Ford III and Bill Smunk

34th Carolinas Women's Four-Ball
Porters Neck Country Club
Wilmington, NC
August 2-3, 2011

Champions: Patty Moore, Charlotte, NC &
Peg Brady, Stanley, NC

Patty Moore of Charlotte, NC and Peg Brady of Stanley, NC led wire-to-wire to capture the 34th Carolinas Women's Four-Ball Championship by seven strokes over Ashley and Shelby Osieck of New Bern, NC. Moore now holds fourteen CGA titles while this is the first CGA trophy for Brady. This is the first time Moore and Brady have paired up together in this event and the combination of the two seemed to work very well for them. "When one person was having a bad hole the other person would play well," Moore said. "We really picked each other up when the other one got down." Peg (Brady) carded three birdies for the team while Patty (Moore) contributed two of her own. "This was a lot of fun for us," smiled

Brady. "We will definitely have to team up with each other again." In the tournament division Karen Ferree of Hilton Head, SC and Melissa Sage of Charlotte, NC fired a three under par 69-140 total to win by three shots over Jo Ann Sluder of Pinehurst, NC and Becca McKinney of Raleigh, NC. The tournament division plays a shorter course. Players were pre-flighted within their division for the duration of the championship.

Champions: Walker and Jackson Taylor, Wilmington, NC

Walker Taylor and Jackson Taylor of Wilmington, NC holed a three-foot birdie putt on the second playoff hole to defeat Walter and Neal Todd of Laurens, SC for the overall title. The Taylor's and Todd's were familiar with each others' abilities since they were paired together during the tournament round. The Taylors birdied the final two holes in regulation to finish at five-under par 66 with the Todds. They kept the birdie train rolling with birdies on the first two playoff holes to seal the victory. "It's a great feeling to win this event," stated Walker Taylor. "I played in this event with my dad for years but we did not win it. So now I am fortunate enough to win it with my son. We tag-teamed very well especially at the end with Jackson holing the final two birdie putts in regulation and I was able to make the two in the playoff." Walker Taylor, a 49-year-old insurance businessman, and his son Jackson, a 21-year-old rising senior at Davidson College claim their first Carolinas Father-Son title. The win is the second CGA title for both Walker (1992 Carolinas Pro-Amateur) and Jackson (2011 Carolinas Young Amateur). The Todd family has had its share of close calls over the years in CGA Father-Son events. Walter Todd has lost in playoffs with each of his sons (Neal and Walt) and Walter's brother, T.D. Todd, also lost in a playoff with his son Thomas. Photo above from left: Walker and Jackson Taylor

Champions: Gary and Elizabeth Robinson, Fayetteville, NC

Gary Robinson of Fayetteville and his daughter Elizabeth avenged a 2007 playoff loss to four time Parent/Child champions Gary and Katie Garahan of Rock Hill, SC by firing a tournament record tying 67. Their seven birdie three bogey effort put them three ahead of the Garahan's as well as Tommy and Rachel Jones of Asheboro. Gary Robinson, a construction company owner and winner of the 2007 NC Mid Amateur and Elizabeth, who works as an investment broker, said the Garahans kept the pressure on with three early birdies of their own beginning the back nine. Photo from left: Elizabeth and Gary Robinson

Champions: Jordan & Shauna Walor, Asheville, NC

Jordan Walor and Shauna Walor of Wake Forest, NC carded a final round 64 to win the Carolinas Mixed Team Championship by five strokes. The Walor brother-sister duo ended a five year winning streak held by Anthony and Debbie Adams of Asheville, NC. The Adams's finished alone in second place at 136. "Jordan was hitting it very close all day which led to so many birdies," stated Shauna Walor. Jordan Walor carded eight birdies in the final round. "We had a lot of fun playing together and look forward to defending our title next year." Jordan, a college senior, and Shauna, a college junior, both play collegiate golf at UNC-Pembroke in Lumberton, NC. Photo from left: Shauna and Jordan Walor

34th Carolinas Pro-Amateur Club Championship The Reserve GC, Pawleys Island, SC April 11, 2011

Champions: Brian Kittler and Bill Smith, Raleigh, NC

Playing in perfect conditions, Raleigh CC, represented by Brian Kittler and Bill Smith, put on a back nine charge to win the 34th Carolinas Pro-Amateur Club Championship at the Reserve GC in Pawleys Island, SC. Kittler and Smith, got off to an average start playing the first seven holes even par, but got things going by making birdie on the demanding 8th hole to make the turn at one under par 35. On the back side, Kittler, the head golf professional at Raleigh CC, got the back side going making birdie on number ten. Smith, a financial advisor, then made three birdies of his own on number 13, 14 and finished off the round with a birdie four on the 18 to finish with back side of four under par 32 and a round of five under par 67, good enough for a one shot lead. Finishing tied for second place at 68 were Forsyth CC, represented by professional John Faidley and amateur Uly Grisette, and Carolina GC, represented by professional Jeffrey Peck and amateur Stephen Woodard. Photo from left: Professional, Brian Kittler and Bill Smith.

Champion: Kelli Murphy, Elgin, SC

Local knowledge seemed to be the winning advantage as local favorite Kelli Murphy of Elgin, SC captured her first CGA championship title over Allison Emrey of Charlotte, NC by a one up margin. Murphy is a member of Woodcreek Farms. "I probably knew the way the greens reacted to putts more than anyone else this week but to be honest I never thought I would get this far," Murphy said. "I just thought I would come here play pretty decent a few days and head home. This win means a lot to me." Murphy faced off against McKenzie Talbert of N. Augusta, SC in the first semifinal match of the morning and would go on to beat the defending champion 3 & 2. At one point Murphy was four under on her round. Talbert would drain a 50 foot putt to keep the match going after sixteen holes but Murphy won the par 5 17th to take Talbert out of the championship. In the final championship match Emrey would get off to a slow start. "I think we were both so tired," Emrey said. "This is a long week and it takes a lot of focus to keep your game going." Emrey went one down after the first hole but quickly bounced back with a birdie to take the match back to all square. The players turned to the outward nine and Murphy held a 1 up advantage. Emrey would then go on to win holes 11, 12 and 13 to go 2 up after Murphy made a mental error conceding a hole she could have tied Emrey with a par. "My mind went blank out on those holes. I was mentally exhausted," Murphy laughed. When asked what got her to bounce back into the match she simply said "A good pep talk from my caddie." Murphy would go on to win holes 14 and 16 with a birdie to get the match back to all square. Both players made impressive birdies on the par 5 17th. But it was the 18th hole that sealed the deal for Murphy. After both players reached the green with good approach shots from the fairway Murphy drained a 42 foot putt while Emrey's chance at birdie hit the hole and bounced out. "I couldn't believe my putt went in," Murphy laughed. "What a week!"

45th Twin States Junior Girls Governors Club Chapel Hill, NC July 26-27, 2011

Champion: Victoria Allred, Pfafftown, NC

Victoria Allred of Pfafftown, NC came from behind and won by four strokes over Evelyn Dole of Raleigh, NC to capture her first major CGA Championship title. Allred carded five birdies on the day to shoot a two under par, 70—145 two day total. “I just aim for the center of the green and hope to make a putt,” Allred laughed. “It’s really a simple game.” Allred’s best stretch came on the inward nine after she made three birdies in a row on holes 12, 13 and 14 finishing with a 33 on the back. When asked what winning her first major championship meant to her she smiled and thought for a minute. “It means a lot to me. I have worked really hard on my game this summer and it shows me that all my hard work has paid off.” Allred also fulfilled another one of her golfing goals as well. “I always wanted to make the Carolinas Junior Girls Team Matches and now I have. I can’t wait to play on them next year.” By winning this championship Allred has earned a spot on the 2012 Mid-Atlantic Challenge and will represent the Carolinas team. These annual matches take eight players from the Carolinas who compete against their counterparts from Virginia and Maryland. While giving her acceptance speech Allred wanted to make sure everyone knew she was dedicating this win to her “Paw-Paw” whom she lost last year. “I was very close to him and it’s been difficult to not have him around. This win was for him.” Medalist Emily Brooks of Chapel Hill, NC finished in a tie for 3rd place.

Pine Island Country Club
Charlotte, NC
May 7-8, 2011

Champion: Chelsey Couch, Ware Shoals, SC

Chelsey Couch of Ware Shoals, SC followed up her first round 70 with a one under par round of 71 and finished with a two day total of three under par 141 to win the 6th Vicki Disantis Girls' Championship being hosted by Pine Island CC in Charlotte, NC. Couch, a high school junior, played the first 16 holes in three under par and then coasted home to win by two shots over McKenzie Talbert of N. Augusta, SC. Talbert, the 2009 and 2010 Carolinas Junior Player of the Year, could not mount a second day charge to catch Couch and finished in second place two shots back at one under par 143. Katelyn Dambaugh, the runner-up in last year's US Junior Girls' Amateur finished in third place five shots back at two over 146.

1st Carolinas Net Amateur Championship
Myrtlewood Golf Club (PineHills)
Myrtle Beach, SC
November 19-20, 2011

Womens Champion: Maggie Collins, Greensboro, NC
Mens Champion: Pat Cullifer, Leland, NC
Senior Mens Champion: Tony Smarrelli, Pinehurst, NC

The first champions were crowned at the inaugural Carolinas Net Amateur Championship played at Myrtlewood Golf Club's PineHills course.

In the Men's Division, 13-handicapper Pat Cullifer of Leland, NC, posted an eight-under par 136 net total to beat Brent Musick of Myrtle Beach, SC by one stroke for the overall Men's title. Cullifer also won the low North Carolina crown. Musick won the South Carolina state title.

A three-hole playoff was needed to determine the winner in the Senior Men's Division. Tony Smarrelli, a four handicapper from Pinehurst, NC defeated Cliff Seastrunk, a five handicapper, of Raleigh, NC by one stroke. Players used 1/6 of their course handicap during the playoff. Smarrelli also took home the low North Carolina Senior title while Gary Loeb of Conway, SC won the South Carolina Senior title.

Maggie Collins of Greensboro, NC carded a 137 total to take home a truckload of trophies that included the overall Women's champion, North Carolina Women's champion and the low Senior Women's award. The 22-handicapper won by three shots over Barbara Haggart of Mooresville, NC.

Players competed in three divisions based upon gender and age. The three divisions are Men, Senior Men (age 55+) and Women (all ages).

51st North Carolina Amateur Greensboro Country Club (Farm) Greensboro, NC June 16-19, 2011

Champion: Harold Varner, Gastonia, NC

20 year-old Harold Varner of Gastonia fired the day's low round of 66 for a 274 total to win the North Carolina Amateur Championship at Greensboro Country Club's Farm Course. The rising senior at East Carolina had 7 birdies and one bogey. His round included an eagle 3 on the par 5 13th, which proved to be a turning point for the championship. Varner's caddy, Adam Perry, helped Varner to victory. The Assistant Superintendent at Forsyth Country Club met Varner while at Gaston Country Club and offered to caddy for Varner when he came to the area. "I felt like I could win when I teed off this morning," said Varner. "The course has five par 5 holes which I felt played to my strength. I just had to be patient and let it happen." Varner began the day tied for 11th and four shots behind third-round leader Ryan Gioffre of Greensboro. Varner's front nine 34 bettered his position but it was not until the eagle at 13 when the leader board began to change significantly. "That eagle on 13 really got me thinking," admitted Varner. "I was able to birdie 14 and 17 to follow that eagle and then wait and watch the others come in." Four players finished tied for second and three shots back. Defending Champion Ryan Heisey of Greensboro finished 10 shots back at 284. In an ironic twist, Varner becomes the first male African American to claim a CGA championship. In the 102 year association history, no African American had won a title until Angela Stewart of Greenville won the North Carolina Senior Women's championship earlier this year. Now two have claimed CGA titles in two months. Varner competed in last year's US Amateur and recently qualified for the upcoming US Public Links Championship which will be held in Oregon. He credits his continued improvement to his teacher, Bruce Sudderth, and his college golf coach and former CGA intern, Press McPhaul. "This is a blessing to actually win the state amateur. It is really cool."

2nd North Carolina Amateur Match Play Bermuda Run Country Club Bermuda Run, NC August 3-7, 2011

Champion: Harold Varner, Gastonia

Reigning North Carolina Amateur (Stroke Play) Champion Harold Varner of Gastonia created history by defeating Colin Chapman of Franklin, 3 and 1 to win the North Carolina Amateur Match Play Championship and become the first player to win the North Carolina Amateur Stroke and Match Play titles. Not only did Varner become the first to win both titles, but he also became the first to win them in the same year. Varner, a rising senior at East Carolina, took advantage of an early opening. "Colin got off to a little rocky start by not making those birdies on 1 and 2," said the 20 year old Varner. "He then knocked one in the water on 4 which allowed me to take the lead." Chapman echoed those thoughts. "We both probably played better earlier in the week," said the rising senior at UNC Greensboro. "I just did not make the putts I needed to today which would have put more pressure on Harold. Harold is a great guy and deserved the win." Varner's dad, who carries the same name, attended the match to watch his son win. "I played golf and introduced the game to Harold by getting him a set of toy clubs when he was 3," said a proud dad. "He took the pea from my hand and started beating me when he was in high school," said the elder Varner referring to the Kung Fu show in which the son learned from the father. Both Chapman and Varner will be attending the US Amateur Championship later this month at Erin Hills in Wisconsin.

44th North Carolina Junior Boys Pine Island Country Club Charlotte, NC June 21-24, 2011

Champion: Stanhope Johnson, Jr, Greensboro, NC

Stanhope Johnson, Jr. of Greensboro completed a week of stellar play winning the NC Junior Boys' Championship at Pine Island CC in Charlotte, NC. Johnson, a rising high school senior, defeated the scrappy Benjamin Griffin of Chapel Hill in the morning's semi-finals, 4&3. Griffin was one up after the first nine holes, but Johnson won five of the next six holes to close out the match on the fifteenth hole. In the other semi-finals match, Dylan Harris of Southern Pines defeated Victor Wiggins of Gastonia, 2&1 in very close back and forth match. In the championship match, Johnson got off to a great start winning holes three through six to take a four up lead and was three up after the first nine holes. Johnson took a four up lead after Harris bogeyed the short par 4 11th hole. Johnson then closed out the match with a birdie on the par 4 fourteenth and secured his first CGA championship.

Pine Island Country Club
Charlotte, NC
June 21-24, 2011

Champion: Sarah Bae, Cary, NC

In the girls' championship, 2010 NC Junior Girls' Player of the Year, Sarah Bae of Cary, captured her second CGA championship defeating Kayla Sciupider of Etowah, 4&3. Bae, a rising high school junior, reached the championship match defeating Alaina Yeatts of Durham, 3&2. In the afternoon championship match, Bae got off to a quick start winning four of the first five holes and had a four up lead through seven holes. Bae continued to lead at four up after eleven holes, but Sciupider chipped in for birdie on the par 4 twelfth hole to get back to three down. On the fourteenth hole, Bae reached the par five in two and made the putt for an eagle three and went back to four up and secured her victory when both players parred the par five 15th.

15th North Carolina Boys 13 and Under Asheboro Municipal Golf Club
Asheboro, NC
July 18-19, 2011

Champion: James Sugg, Pinehurst, NC

James Sugg of Pinehurst, NC battled a bulky putter and a tough opponent in AJ Beechler of Pinehurst, NC in winning the 15th NC Junior Boys 13 and Under Championship hosted by the Donald Ross designed Asheboro Municipal Golf Club in Asheboro, NC. Sugg, a 13 year old rising eighth grader, got off to an early two up lead after three holes, but Beechler, an 11 year old rising sixth grader, fought back and squared the match after nine holes. On the seventeenth hole, Sugg needed a two putt to win the hole, but four putted the tricky green to give Beechler the hole and a one up lead. Beechler bogeyed the eighteenth hole and a Sugg par sent the match to extra holes. Sugg won the 19th hole to secure his first Carolinas Golf Association championship.

In the other flights, medalist Henry Shimp of Charlotte, NC defeated Justin Emmons of Asheboro, NC 1 up to win the Championship flight consolation bracket. Logan Shuping of Salisbury, NC won the first flight defeating Kevin Sowinski of Greensboro, NC 1 up. Stephen Carroll of Concord, NC beat Nicholas Poole of Greensboro, NC 4&2 to win the third flight. And in the fourth flight, Kellan Bodenheimer of Clemmons, NC defeated Sanford Thompson of Raleigh, NC in 10 holes.

26th North Carolina Senior Amateur
North Ridge Country Club (Lakes)
Raleigh, NC
May 17-19, 2011

Champion: Paul Simson, Raleigh

60-year-old Paul Simson of Raleigh, NC posted a five-under par 67 to win his 23rd CGA championship and 5th North Carolina Senior Amateur title by nine strokes over Logan Jackson of Winston-Salem, NC. Simson, who is a member at North Ridge Country Club, carded four birdies, one eagle and one bogey in the final round to set a new championship low score of 201. Simson was the only player to shoot in the 60's all three rounds. "It was a very special week," Simson said. "Winning a CGA championship is always special but winning at my home club makes it more so." He is now one win away from tying Dale Morey's record of 24 CGA championship titles.

Simson is now two-for-two in CGA majors held at North Ridge Country Club. He won the 1997 Carolinas Mid-Amateur title in a playoff over Steve Jones of Oak Ridge, NC. Simson opened his round by holing his second shot from the fairway to quickly set the pace. "That is the first time I have ever eagled number one," Simson noted.

Champion: Mike Sprouts, Newton, NC

Sixty-six year old Mike Sprouts, a retired oil company computer systems programmer birdied the first playoff hole to win the 4th NC Super Senior Championship. Mike was tied with Larry Boswell of Jamestown after the 17th. On 18, Mike's second shot found the front bunker while Larry's approach finished 10 feet from the hole. Sprouts knew he had to make par to have a chance and responded with a great bunker shot that almost went in the hole. Boswell's putt for the win was just wide and the playoff was on. On the first playoff hole both players hit the par 5 seventeenth in regulation. Boswell just missed from 15' then Sprouts rolled in his 10 footer for the title.

George Leight fired a tournament low round of 67 to finish tied for third with former NC Senior Am champion Bob Kulp of Advance, NC.

Champion: Angela Stewart, Greenville

Angela Stewart of Greenville fired a three over par 75-151 to capture her first CGA Championship title by one stroke over defending champion, Pat Brogden of Garner. Both players started the day off tied for the lead and stayed neck and neck with each other throughout most of the round. "We were back and forth," Brogden said. "Even though we weren't playing match play I felt like we were playing a match most of the day. She would make a birdie and go "1 up" on me and then I would make a putt and go "1 up" on her. It was a fun day and I couldn't be more happy for Angela (Stewart)." Stewart said that staying patient was the key factor in claiming her first win. "I never got ahead of myself out there. I always tried to stay in the moment. When Pat (Brogden) would make a birdie I just kept telling myself to stay patient." Stewart said this win means a lot to her as this was the first time she ever won anything on such a large scale. Stewart had to make a 3 foot putt for par on the final hole to avoid a sudden death playoff with Brogden who is a six time CGA champion. "My hard work has finally paid off and I couldn't be happier."

Not only did Stewart capture her first major win but this is the first time in CGA history that an African American player has ever won a CGA championship. "I can't believe I am the first person to accomplish this," Stewart said. "I am honored and I hope I can serve as a role model for other African American players to come out and support the CGA. I especially hope I can encourage young girls to take up the game." In the tournament division, Cynthia Curry of Charlotte captured both the Super Senior prize and the overall by two strokes over Lilia Rodriguez of Chapel Hill. This division plays a shorter course.

Champion: Brian Westveer, Charlotte

All his peers know that when it comes down to fairways and greens hit in regulation, there is none better than Brian Westveer. The only part of his game that has held him back is decent putting. It finally happened at River Run CC. Three days of two putts and making the short ones for birdies gave Brian his first CGA title exactly 10 years to the day after regaining his amateur status. "I hit all 18 greens and missed only one fairway today," said Westveer. "The three birdies ranged from 1" to a few feet. My only miscue was a three-putt on 16."

After nine holes, Nolan Mills, the leader after the first two rounds, and Uly Grisette were tied at -5 for the tournament lead but Uly's double bogey 6 on #13 derailed his hopes and Nolan's fall started with a double bogey 7 on the par five 12th. His 42 on the back nine pushed him all the way back to a tie for 10th. Scott Harvey, not sure where he stood with the players in the two groups behind him and knowing how he stood with Westveer, decided to go for the green in two off a downhill lie from the 18th fairway. His shot never got up and did not clear the water. His resulting double bogey 7 placed him one shot out of a playoff with his good friend.

16th North Carolina Four-Ball
River Landing (River)
Wallace, NC
October 7-9, 2011

Champions: David Donovan IV, Hampstead &
Jonathan Miles, Wilmington

David Donovan IV of Hampstead, NC and Jonathan Miles of Wilmington, NC fired a tournament low round of 62 to win the 16th North Carolina Four-Ball Championship by three strokes over Ryan Sullivan of Winston-Salem, NC and Brian Phaup of Taylorsville, NC. Donovan, a 19-year-old sophomore criminal justice major at Cape Fear Community College, and Miles, a 20-year-old junior finance student at Pfeiffer College, carded eight birdies and an eagle en route to their 62. They came out firing on all cylinders and were quickly six-under par through seven holes. Four additional birdies on the back nine sealed the victory. “When we racked off the eagle on the fifth hole that really got us going,” stated Donovan. “We kept our focus today which was our key.” This is the first four-ball event that Donovan and Miles have played together. “I know we will be playing at least one more together when we try to defend next year,” Donovan said with a smile. Photo from left: David Donovan IV and Jonathan Miles

10th North Carolina Senior Four-Ball High Point Country Club (Willow Creek) High Point, NC August 2-4, 2011

Champions: Ron Carpenter, Creedmoor, NC & Gary Brown, Charlotte, NC

Ron Carpenter of Creedmoor and Gary Brown of Charlotte held off Ray Womack and Wayne Pyrtle of Burlington to win the North Carolina Senior Four-Ball Championship. Carpenter and Brown posted a final round 65 to win by three strokes with a 23-under par 193 score. Womack and Pyrtle closed within one shot of the lead after 15 holes. But a birdie by Carpenter on hole 16 and a birdie by Brown on hole 17 sealed the victory. "Gary (Brown) played well all week," stated Carpenter. "We were partners at the Carolinas-Virginias team matches a couple of years ago and played well together. Our games are very similar so we thought it would be a good fit to team-up for this event," Defending champions Mark Wagner of Statesville and Richard Hogan of Burlington finished at 208 and in a tie for 30th place.

39th South Carolina Amateur Match Play The Carolina Country Club Spartanburg, SC June 15-19, 2011

Champion: Mark Joye, Columbia

Wofford College junior Mark Joye of Columbia defeated USC Upstate sophomore Adam Goins of Gaffney, 3 & 2, to win his first CGA championship title. Joye, a 20 year-old finance major had his brother Carson serving as caddie during match play after Carson failed to advance to match play in this event. Joye came out firing and blazed to an early 2 up lead by making birdies on the first two holes. He would hold that lead until the 6th hole where Goins canned a birdie to win the hole. This was the start of a back-and-forth battle over the next five holes. Joye birdied the drivable 274-yard par four 7th hole to go 2 up. A miscue by Joye on the 8th hole led to a bogey giving the hole to Goins. Joye immediately answered with a birdie on the 9th hole to take a 2 up lead heading into the back nine. Goins won the 10th hole with a par after Joye three-putted from the fringe and the 11th hole with a birdie to square the match. Joye then took control of the match with a three-foot birdie on the par three 12th hole to take a 1 up lead. Then he won the 13th hole via a three-putt bogey by Goins to go 2 up. The 14th hole was halved with pars. An errant tee shot on the 220-yard par three 15th hole led to a bogey by Goins to give Joye a 3 up lead with 3 holes to play. Joye sealed the 3 & 2 win by halving the 16th hole with par fours. "I hit my wedges and did not make any mistakes this week," Joye said. "My toughest match was in the first round when I had to birdie the last two holes to win 1 up (over Kamito Hirai). From there I was in control of the rest of the matches." Joye's closest match after the first round was a 3 & 1 win over Mitch Gray in the round of 16. The victory is Joye's first match play title and first win since the 2009 Sea Trail Intercollegiate. Goins, an 18-year-old cart attendant at The Carolina Country Club, was pleased but disappointed in the final outcome. "I did not apply any pressure to Mark and you have to if you are going to beat a player of his caliber. I will take away a lot of confidence from this week."

33rd South Carolina Junior Girls Sunset Country Club Sumter, SC July 12-15, 2011

Champion: McKenzie Talbert, North Augusta

Talbert, a rising high school junior, defeated Kaitlin Matheson of Easley, SC 3&1. In the championship match Matheson won the first hole and held a 1 up lead until the fourth hole when Talbert won the next three holes to take a 2 up lead through eight.

Matheson cut the lead to 1 up on the ninth and stayed close until a bogey on the 12th hole moved Talbert's lead back to 2 up. A birdie on the par 3 14th hole gave Talbert a 3 up lead. The lead was reduced to 2 up after the 15th and Talbert closed out the match with a birdie on the 17th hole.

66th Captain's Putter Team Matches

Forest Creek Golf Club Pinehurst, NC October 14-15, 2011

Virginias 26

Carolinas 22

The 24-golfer Virginias squad posted a three-point victory in final-day singles matches against their Carolinas counterparts to score a 26-22 triumph as the 66th Captain's Putter Matches concluded today at Forest Creek Golf Club's South Course.

Possessors of a one-point advantage following first day four-ball and foursome matches at the host site's North Course, Virginias registered a three-point victory (13½-10½) in singles' encounters. The matches were tightly-contested throughout; Virginias' regulars won singles by two points (9-7), and held a one-point edge (4½-3½) in singles' encounters on Saturday.

Virginias claimed its first win in the series since 2008 when the team won at The Country Club of Virginia's River Course in Richmond, Va., and claimed its first victory on North Carolina soil since 2003. That year, the team triumphed at Grandfather Golf and Country Club in Linville, N.C. The matches annually rotate between sites in the Virginias and the Carolinas.

Over the two days of matches, Virginias' regulars outscored their opponents by three points (17½-14½), while Virginias seniors (ages 55 and older) held a one-point advantage, 8½-7½. For the victors, West Virginia regular Bryan Myers (Wheeling) and senior John Duty Sr. (Hurricane) led the way, accounting for all of three points available over the two-day event. On the Carolinas' side, Paul Simson (Raleigh, N.C.), the 2010 USGA Senior Amateur champion, continued his stellar play, going undefeated and recording a team-best three points for the hosts. Virginias regulars went unblemished in the last five matches, returning four victories and posting a halve. In that span, Brandon LaCroix (Roanoke, Va.), Lee Fisher (Lynchburg, Va.) and Scott Shingler (Haymarket, Va.) each notched 1-up victories, while central Virginian Sam Beach (Glen Allen, Va.) delivered a 2 and 1 win. Carolinas claimed three of the first four singles' matches, with Brent Roof (Columbia, S.C.), J.D. Hoft (Bluffton, S.C.) and Brian Westveer (Charlotte, N.C.) fueling the host's early surge.

In addition to Duty's victory on the seniors' side for Virginias, Centreville's Tim Vigotsky and Ashland's Tim Kelley recorded 1-up wins, while Salem's Jack Allara registered a 2 and 1 victory. For Carolinas' seniors, North Carolinians Ron Carpenter (Creedmoor), Mark Wagner (Statesville) and Gary Strickfaden (Southern Pines) came away with closing-day triumphs.

Carolinas leads the all-time series 47-18-1, but the two teams have split the matches, 5-5-0 dating back to 2002. This year's Virginias team was captained by past VSGA president Steve Smith (2008-09) of Arlington, a longtime member of the VSGA board of directors, and Richmond's Glenn Mullian was selected as the team's honorary co-captain. The 2012 Captain's Putter Matches will be conducted in West Virginia for the first time since 1976 when the event visits The Resort at Glade Springs' Cobb and Stonehaven courses in Daniels, W.Va. Photo - 2011 Carolinas Captain's Putter Team

29th Carolinas-Virginias Junior Team Matches

Boonsboro Country Club, Lynchburg, VA August 13-14, 2011

Carolinas 9 1/2 Virginias 6 1/2

The eight-golfer Carolinas team won four of the final five closing day singles matches to post a three-point victory (9½-6½) against their Virginias counterparts to claim the 29th Carolinas-Virginias Junior Matches, which concluded today at Boonsboro Country Club. One point was available per each match. Carolinas led by a single point following opening day foursome and four-ball encounters and outscored their opponents 5-3 in Sunday's concluding singles matches to triumph. Carolinas claimed the Vinny Giles Trophy, notched its first win in the series since 2006 and ended a three-match drought on Virginia soil. Carolinas last win at Boonsboro came in 2003 in the event, which alternates between the Lynchburg-based VSGA member club and sites in the Carolinas.

Virginias got off to a strong start by winning two of the first three encounters to tie things up at five and a half points apiece as Ryan Mondy (Blacksburg, Va.) and Trey Smith (Virginia Beach, Va.) each posted wins. Mondy defeated Will Thomas (Cary N.C.), 3 and 1, while Smith ousted Austin Langdale (Townville, S.C.), 5 and 4. For Carolinas, Stanhope Johnson Jr. (Greensboro, N.C.), this summer's North Carolina Junior Boys' champion, posted the team's only victory in the first three encounters, besting central Virginian Christopher Kapsak (Richmond), 2 up.

Thereafter, Carolinas recorded event-deciding victories, scoring three straight wins in matches 4-6. For Carolinas in that stretch, reigning South Carolina Junior Match Play champion Carson Young (Pendleton, S.C.) defeated Alex Lloyd (Virginia Beach, Va.) 4 and 3. Thereafter, Will Long (Gastonia, N.C.), the 2011 Carolinas Junior winner, notched a 3 and 2 victory over John David Sanderson (Suffolk, Va.) in the ensuing match. Then, in a matchup of U.S. Junior participants from this summer, national championship quarterfinalist Will Starke (Chapin, S.C.) got past event semifinalist Adam Ball (Richmond, Va.), 2 and 1 to complete the surge of victories for Carolinas.

Blacksburg's Jake Mondy, the two-time reigning Virginia State Golf Association Junior Stroke Play victor, ended the winless span for Virginias, registering a 3 and 2 victory over Andrew Decker (Greenville, N.C.) in match seven. Mondy, who is headed to Auburn University on a golf scholarship was participating in the event for the final time before passing the age eligibility limit. Last week's Junior PGA champion, Cody Proveaux (Leesville, S.C.), bound for Clemson University to start his college career closed things out in his final start in the matches, posting a 3 and 2 victory over Woody Woodward (Bridgeport, W.Va.).

Starke, South Carolina's Class 3A Most Valuable Player, and Johnson both went undefeated over the weekend's play, supplying a team-leading three points. Starke has already committed to play at the University of South Carolina in the fall of 2012. For Virginias, Mondy, Smith and Woodward, the reigning West Virginia Golf Association Junior Match Play champion, paced the squad with two points in this year's matches. Carolinas leads the all-time series 15-13-1, but Virginias holds a 5-2-1 advantage in the annual renewal of the matches dating back to 2004. *Photo: The 2011 Carolinas Junior Team. 10th Mid-Atlantic Challenge (Junior Girls Team Matches)

Mid-Pines Inn and Golf Club, Southern Pines, NC July 30-31, 2011

Virginias/Maryland 7 1/2

Carolinas 4 1/2

The eight-player Virginia-Maryland team posted a one-point win in final day singles matches to come away with a three-point triumph (7½-4½) over their Carolinas counterparts to capture the 10th Mid-Atlantic Girls' Challenge at Mid Pines Inn & Golf Club. Owners of a one-point lead following Saturday's first day four-ball encounters, Virginia-Maryland notched a one-point victory, 4½-3½, in Sunday's concluding singles matches.

Virginia-Maryland's victory ended a seven-year dry spell in the matches. The team recorded its second win in the series since scoring its only victory in the event in 2003 at Pinewild Country Club in Pinehurst, N.C. All told, the two teams halved the first four matches, but Virginia-Maryland won two matches and halved another the remainder of the way to outscore Carolinas by one point, 2½-1½, en route to the triumph.

In the early matches, northern Virginian Karishma Thiagaraj (Haymarket) continued her strong play, ousting Taelor Rubin (Raleigh, N.C.), 3 and 2. Meanwhile, central Virginian Lyberty Anderson, 15, of Chesterfield posted a 2 and 1 win over Emiley Pagrabs (Wilmington, N.C.) in match four. Anderson, the three-time reigning Richmond Women's Golf Association Amateur champion, won Nos. 16 and 17 to score an important win for Virginia-Maryland. Carolinas claimed encounters two and three, with Chelsey Couch (Ware Shoals, S.C.) and Sarah Bae (Cary, N.C.) each contributing wins. Couch was a 3 and 1 victor, while Bae won 1 up.

With Virginia-Maryland's two-point edge still intact heading to the late stages, in match five, Sarah Brown (Severna Park, Md.) halved Kelsey Badmaev (Blythewood, S.C.). One match later, Kelli Murphy (Elgin, S.C.) delivered a 3 and 2 comeback win over Clare Connolly (Chevy Chase, Md.). But Virginia-Maryland would have the final answer, capturing the final two matches to secure victory. Maia Schechter (Takoma Park, Md.) posted a wire-to-wire 4 and 3 win over Allison Emrey (Charlotte, N.C.) in match seven. In the concluding match of the day, despite trailing early, Chesapeake's Lauren Coughlin, playing in the event for the final time before heading off to the University of Virginia ousted Elizabeth Thompson (Charleston, S.C.), 6 and 4. Coughlin took a one hole up lead in the late stages of the first nine before rolling to victory. Thompson, a record five-time event participant, is bound for Wofford (S.C.) College. Photo: The 2011 Carolinas Junior Girls Team. From left: Allison Emrey, Taelor Rubin, Chelsey Couch, Elizabeth Thompson, Kelsey Badmaev, Emily Pagrabs, Sarah Bae and Kelli Murphy.

17th Tar Heel Cup Matches

Dormie Club, West End, NC March 28-29, 2011

Professionals 6 Amateurs 6

The Carolinas PGA Professionals took a one point lead into the singles matches and hung on to retain the cup. The Matches ended in a 6 - 6 tie for the second year in a row. The Amateurs made a fierce come back on the back after being down by 2½ points with three matches yet to be decided. The charge started with Will Bowman winning the 18th hole to square his match and secure ½ point. Then Uly Grisette rallied from 2 down to defeat his home club pro John Faidley by a 3 & 2 margin. The tie was in the last match secured by Scott Harvey when he too came from a 2 down deficit to defeat Paul Dickens 2 up. The Professionals lead in the matches with 13 to just 2 for the Amateurs. *Photo: 2011 North Carolina Amateur Team. Front: Will Bowman, Pat Thompson, Scott Harvey and Brian Westveer. 15th Island Four-Ball Getaway and Tournament Casa De Campo, Dominican Republic February 16-18, 2011

Low Gross: Andy Gianoukos, Charleston, SC &
Brian Lott, Summerville, SC

The Carolinas Golf Association's 15th Island Four-Ball Getaway Tournament was held February 16-18 at Casa de Campo Resort in La Romana, Dominican Republic. The 54-hole four-ball event was played on the resort's three Pete Dye designed golf courses including the world famous Teeth of the Dog. The 90 tournament participants enjoyed great weather (except a little rain), world famous golf, fine cuisine and the impressive renovations made to the main area of the resort. Photo from left: Andy Gianoukos and Brian Lott

Fort Mill GC 26 Bentwinds CC 22

Fort Mill GC (Fort Mill, SC), captured their 1st CGA Interclub Championship on Sunday (Nov 13) by the narrow margin of 26 to 22 over Bentwinds CC (Fuquay-Varina, NC). This was the second consecutive year that the championship was determined by the final pairing. But unlike last year's match, which came down to the final putt on the 18th green to determine the outcome, Fort Mill's final paring sealed the deal when Mike Granger birdied the 17th hole to win the four-ball match (2&1) with the help of teammate Rick Fricke. With all other matches complete and the overall match tied 21 to 21, Fricke had already secured his individual win by a 3&2 margin over Joel Marmion on the previous hole. That win and the birdie by Granger gave Fort Mill the 4 match points needed to guarantee a team victory and the championship.

The Carolinas Golf Association announced the naming of the Carolinas Interclub trophy after the event's founder Ben Payne. Payne started the Carolinas Interclub in 1997, and the event was transferred to the Carolinas Golf Association in 2007. The announcement was made at the welcome reception of the Carolinas Interclub semifinal/final matches. The trophy will be named the Ben Payne Carolinas Interclub Championship trophy. Payne is a member of Forest Oaks CC in Greensboro, NC.

Tarheel Youth Golf Association Tournaments (TYGA) (North Carolina Juniors Only)

Mar 19 3rd Jimmy Anderson Junior Invitational Jacksonville Country Club, Jacksonville, NC

Emily Brooks of Chapel Hill, NC and Andrew Decker of Greenville, NC each won their division in the third annual Jimmy Anderson Junior Invitational hosted by Jacksonville Country Club in Jacksonville, NC. This annual 36-hole junior tournament was created in 2009 by the junior golf alumni of Jacksonville Country Club in honor of their long time teacher and friend, Jimmy Anderson. The 102-player field consisted of junior golfers from North and South Carolina.

Brooks, a high school junior, followed her first round of 74 with a four over par 76 to finish with a two day total of 150 and a six shot victory. Finishing tied for second at 156 were Casey Ward of Chapel Hill, NC, Tara Simmons of Goldsboro, NC and Sarah Bae of Cary, NC, the 2010 Jimmy Anderson Junior girls' champion. Brooks began her final round with a couple of pars and finished her first nine holes with a one over par 37. On the back side, Brooks bogeyed number ten, but then rolled off a string of six pars before finishing with two bogeys on the challenging 17th and 18th holes. The victory was Brooks' first in the past 12 months.

Decker, a high school senior, defended his 2010 victory in the Jimmy Anderson Junior and finished with a two day total of five under par 139. Grant Houser of Holly Springs, NC shot a round of three under par 69, the low round of the day, and finished in second place at one under par 143. Alone in third place was Taylor Coalson of Dodson, NC who finished three over par at 147. Eric Bae of Cary, NC, the 2010 NC Boys' 13 and under state champion, finished in fourth place with a total of four over par 148. Bylaws of the Carolinas Golf Association

Article I

Name

The name of the organization is Carolinas Golf Association (hereinafter “Association”).

Article II

Membership

Section 1. Qualification for Regular Membership. Membership in the Association shall be open to any organized golf club in North Carolina and South Carolina, whether or not incorporated, which endorses the objects of the Association, abides by its Articles of Incorporation, bylaws and such rules and regulations as may be established from time to time, and subscribes to its handicapping system for all of its members. As used herein, “any organized golf club” means a permanent club composed of at least 25 individual dues-paying members who are admitted as members by an appropriate committee chosen by members, and who manage their own affairs through officers and committees whom they select. Such clubs shall operate regularly at one golf course of not less than nine holes which its members have the right to play, but said club need not control the golf course where it plays. Not more than one club may operate regularly at one facility.

Section 2. Qualification for Associate Membership. An Associate Member is a golf facility that does meet the general membership requirements, which does not have members, and does not provide or subscribe to any handicapping system. An Associate Member club shall apply for membership in the Association, abide by its Article of Incorporation, Bylaws, and such rules and regulations as may be established from time to time by the Executive Committee. An Associate Member which establishes a membership program, permits “any organized golf club” to use its facility, or provides or subscribes to any handicapping system shall immediately terminate its Associate Member status.

Section 3. Qualification for Affiliate Membership. An Affiliate Member is an organized golf club that otherwise meets the qualifications for regular membership, that does not operate regularly at any golf course, and that complies with all other requirements as may be approved by the Executive Committee from time to time. All Affiliate Memberships automatically shall terminate at the end of each calendar year and shall be subject to reinstatement annually by approval of the Executive Committee.

Section 4. Qualification for Virtual Membership. A virtual member is a club comprised of individuals who had no prior affiliation and a majority of the recruiting and sign up of the membership is done by solicitation to the public (e.g., newspaper, Internet).

Section 5 Application for Membership. Applications for membership shall be made in writing to the Executive Director of the Association in such form and accompanied by such information as the Executive Director deems necessary for action by the Executive Committee on such application. Dues for one (1) full year shall accompany the application.

Section 6. Election to Membership. Election to membership shall be by vote of the Executive Committee at any regular or special meeting.

Section 7. Suspension or Expulsion of Members. Except as provided in Section 7 (Dues) below, a member may be suspended or expelled from the Association by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of all members of the Executive Committee, provided such member be given an opportunity to be heard after due notice of the reasons for the proposed suspension or expulsion. Any member suspended or expelled by the vote of the Executive Committee may appeal the decision to the delegates at the next annual meeting of the Association or any special meeting called for the purpose of hearing such appeal.

Section 8. Dues. The Executive Committee shall fix the annual dues, which shall be payable prior to the Annual Meeting of the Association. Individual members of member clubs whose dues are not paid by that time shall be barred from entering all Association events during the period of delinquency. Any members whose annual dues are unpaid at the end of the fiscal year shall be dropped automatically from membership in the Association. Reinstatement of such member may occur upon an application for reinstatement, payment of a reinstatement fee equivalent to the dues of the year of reinstatement, and reinstatement by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.

Article III

Membership Meeting

Section 1. Annual Meeting. The Annual Meeting of the Association shall be held at such date, time and place set by the Executive Committee. Such meeting must be held within one hundred twenty (120) days of the end of the fiscal year and at least twenty (20) days written notice thereof must be given to all members. The order of business shall be as follows: 1. Minutes of previous meeting. 2. Treasurer's report. 3. Committee reports. 4. Executive Director's report. 5. President's report. 6. Old and new business. 7. Election of executive committeemen. 8. Adjournment.

Section 2. Special Meetings. A special meeting of the Association may be held on call of the President or by written request directed to the Secretary and signed by a majority of the Executive Committee, provided that at least fourteen (14) days written notice thereof is given to each member. Such notice shall contain a statement of the purposes of the subject meeting.

Section 3. Representation. At all meetings of the Association, each member shall be entitled to be represented by two (2) voting delegates, who must be present in person and be resident members in good standing of the respective member club. The appointment of the delegates shall be certified to in advance of the meetings by their respective club secretaries, and all credentials must be presented at or before the meeting to the Executive Director of the Association. In the event that the Executive Director should fail to receive in writing a certified list of the delegates from any club, then the members of that club present at the meeting may elect or nominate two (2) delegates. In the event that one of the delegates certified by the club secretary is unable to attend the meeting, the remaining certified delegate may appoint any of their resident club members in good standing, present at the meeting, to fill their quota. Members of all member clubs shall be entitled to attend all meetings of the Association and take part in the discussion of all subjects which may arise. Only voting delegates are empowered to vote and these delegates must be present in person.

Section 4. Quorum. At any meeting of the Association, five (5) member clubs represented in person by at least one voting delegate shall constitute a quorum.

Article IV Executive Committee

Section 1. General Powers and Duties. The management of affairs, property and policies of the Association shall be vested in the Executive Committee.

Section 2. Number, Term and Qualification. The Executive Committee shall consist of twelve (12) regular committeemen, and all officers of the Association shall serve as ex officio members of the Executive Committee. The officers shall serve terms on the Executive Committee concurrent with the terms of their respective offices. All regular committeemen shall serve terms of four years, three of which terms shall commence at each annual meeting of the Association.

The regular committeemen are to represent six (6) member clubs from North Carolina and six (6) member clubs from South Carolina. All members of the Executive Committee shall be resident members in good standing of member clubs of the Association. Each member of the Executive Committee, whether regular or ex officio of the Association, shall have one vote on all matters to come before the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Election and Removal. Regular committeemen shall be elected at the Annual Meeting of the Association. Should a committeeman resign, or for any reason be unable to fulfill the duties of his office, the Executive Committee may elect his successor for his remaining term of office. Committeemen may be removed from office by a vote of a majority of the voting delegates present at an annual or special meeting of the Association.

Section 4. Meetings. The Annual Meeting of the Executive Committee shall be held immediately preceding the Annual Meeting of the Association. In addition, special meetings may be held on the call of the President, provided that at least fourteen (14) days notice thereof is given to each committeeman and the purpose of the meeting is set forth in said notice.

Section 5. Manner of Acting. Unless otherwise required under the provisions of these bylaws, the act of a majority of the members of the Executive Committee present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Executive Committee. Action taken by a majority of the members of the Executive Committee without a meeting is nevertheless Executive Committee action, if written consent to the action is signed by all members of the Executive Committee then holding office and filed with the minutes of the proceedings of the Executive Committee, whether done before or after the action so taken.

Section 6. Quorum. At any meeting of the Executive Committee, seven (7) members present in person shall constitute a quorum.

Section 7. Term Limits. A member of the Executive Committee may be re-elected for multiple terms. No member of the Executive Committee shall serve for more than twenty-four (24) consecutive years, including any years in which such person may serve as an officer of the Association. The provisions of this Section 7 shall apply to members of the Executive Committee whose first term begins on or after January 1, 2002.

Article V Officers

Section 1. Designation. The officers of the Association shall consist of a President, the Immediate Past President, a Vice President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, an Executive Director and a General Counsel.

Section 2. Election, Term and Succession. The President and Vice President of the Association shall be elected at alternate Annual Meetings of the Executive Committee for two year terms and may not succeed themselves in office. The Secretary and Treasurer of the Association shall be elected each year at the Annual Meeting of the Executive Committee. Should the President resign or for any reason be unable to fulfill the duties of his office, the Vice President shall succeed to the Presidency immediately. Should the Vice President, the Secretary or the Treasurer resign or for any reason be unable to fulfill the duties of office, the Executive Committee shall elect from its membership a successor to serve until the next Annual Meeting. The Executive Director and the General Counsel shall be elected by, retained by and serve at the will of the Executive Committee. The Immediate Past President shall serve a two (2) year term concurrent with the term of the President. If either or both of the Immediate Past President or Vice President positions is vacated, the Executive Committee may elect from its membership a successor or successors to serve until the next annual meeting.

Section 3. Powers and Duties. The President shall preside at all meetings of the Association and of the Executive Committee, have general supervision and management of the affairs of the Association, appoint such special committees as may be found desirable and necessary, make reports to the Executive Committee and members, and perform all such other duties as are incident to this office or are properly required of him by the Executive Committee.

The Vice President shall serve as chairman of any committee primarily responsible for the conducting of competitive events and shall perform the duties of the President in his absence.

The Secretary, unless such duties are delegated by the Executive Committee to the Executive Director, shall keep the minutes of all meetings of the Association and of the Executive Committee, give notice of such meetings, and perform such duties as the President and Executive Committee require of him.

The Treasurer shall serve as chairman of the Finance Committee and shall perform such duties as the President and Executive Committee may require of him.

The Executive Director shall maintain the Association books and records, have the power to collect and disburse funds belonging to the Association under the direction of the President and the Executive Committee, and perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the President and the Executive Committee.

The General Counsel shall advise the Executive Committee and the Association on legal matters.

Article VI Rules of Golf and Tournaments

Section 1. Rules of Golf. The Rules of Golf, as established by the United States Golf Association, and all changes and amendments as may be adopted from time to time by said Association shall be the acknowledged authority and shall govern all play in all events of the Association, subject to such exceptions as may be set forth in rules and regulations promulgated by the Executive Committee or duly appointed committees of the Association.

Section 2. Committees. The President, subject to the approval of the Executive Committee, may establish and appoint such committees as may be necessary to supervise the conduct of tournaments sponsored by the Association. Such committees shall have the power to promulgate rules and regulations governing eligibility, format and conduct of such tournaments, provided such rules and regulations are not in conflict with any action of the Executive Committee.

Section 3. Championship Trophies. Championship trophies shall be maintained by the Association and custody thereof be given to the member club which the winner represents.

Section 4. Eligibility to Participate in Championship Events. An individual must be a legal resident of either North Carolina or South Carolina to be eligible to participate in the Association's Championship tournaments. An individual's voter registration location shall determine his or her legal residence.

Article VII Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Association shall be from January 1 to December 31.

Article VIII Non-Profit Organization

The Association is a non-profit organization, no part of the capital or net earnings of which shall inure to the benefit of any member or any private individual. Upon the dissolution of the Association, the assets shall be distributed to the United States Golf Association, provided it is then in existence and is then exempt from taxation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, and if not, for one or more exempt purposes within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code, or the corresponding section of any future federal tax code, or shall be distributed to the federal government, or to a state or local government, for a public purpose. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by a court of competent jurisdiction in the county in which the principal office of the Association is then located, exclusively for such purposes or to such organization or organizations as the said court shall determine, which are organized and operated exclusively for such purposes.

Article IX Amendments

The Executive Committee shall have the power to amend the bylaws of this Association.
